Towards the end of July 2018 it was discovered that the Parish Council Notice board, sited at Wood Lane, had been vandalised. The glass had been smashed in two places meaning it was no longer weatherproof, and would need to be replaced using Parish Council funds that could have been more productively spent elsewhere in the village.

If anyone saw anything suspicious, or has any information about this incident, please contact Sue Yeomans, Clerk on 01359 250037

Hepworth & District WI

We had an enjoyable talk from David Lilley on the life and works of P G Wodehouse in June. I think many of us were surprised at the number of different novels he had written even with his long life (he was 93 when he died, still writing). Beside his Bertie Wooster and the Blandings books there were several other series including a school one. He was a very light hearted man and in many ways quite naïve which got him into trouble at times but this produced funny and uplifting stories.

We also had a brief report on the recent National Conference in Cardiff and made plans for our summer outing in August. Our meeting in July was on “A Dog is for Life” when a Paige from the Dogs Trust talked to us about the Trust’s work. They were originally founded in 1891 as the National Canine Defence League. Did you know they have a home in Snetterton where you can visit and see the rescued dogs? She was accompanied by her dog Pippa who made a lot of friends in the audience.

Our WI now covers Hepworth, Barningham, Coney Weston and Hopton and we are always looking for new members to join our small friendly group. If you want to find out more about Hepworth and District WI please ring me or for general information about the WI look online at the west suffolk federation (<http://j.mp/WI-suffolk-west>).

We meet at Hepworth Pavilion on the 2 nd Thursday of the month at 7.30pm and visitors are always welcome without obligation to join us until they know what we offer.

Hepworth Singing Angels

Are singing with great gusto every Monday at 19.30 in the Church.

All abilities welcome.

A big Thank You to Maureen and Ron Bacon for all their hard work organising an excellent Flower Festival at St Peters Church.

The theme this year was Wedding
Anniversaries and this clearly captured the imagination of the participants who all produced beautiful displays. Anniversaries represented included Cotton, Wood, Paper Crystal and Ceramic amongst many others.

By the end of the weekend we understand that over £200 had been raised for the church - a fantastic effort.

Many thanks also to all who came and enjoyed the displays and the wonderful teas and cakes!

Hepworth Parish Council

A meeting of the Hepworth Parish Council took place on Thursday 5th July 2018 at the village hall where the following items were discussed.

Attendees: Mr A Yorke (Vice Chairman), Cllr J Spicer, Ms L Robinson, Mrs Sue Yeomans (Parish Clerk),

Members of the Public:

1. Apologies: Mr D Stannard (Chairman), Mrs M MacPherson, Mrs C Bull
2. Declarations of Interest: There were none
3. Minutes of previous meetings: Extraordinary Meetings of 31st May 2018 and 22nd June 2018 were agreed and signed.
4. Matters arising from previous meetings: Neighbourhood Watch Scheme – there was no response to the advert in the Herald for interested parties to come forward therefore no further action taken at this time.
5. Receive reports and hear from members of the public present:
 - i. Report from Cllr Spicer: It has been agreed to replace the Speed Indicator Device on the A143, which is no longer operating. Work to take place probably in the autumn.
The flood at Reeves Hall – although investigation into the cause will take place shortly, repairs will not be carried out in this financial year. As yet the cause is not clear.
Market Weston Road footpath – still pending an engineer's visit
The Public Local Inquiry into footpaths in Pavilion on 14th August at 10am. All welcome to attend.
Development at Shepherds Grove, Stanton – no further update
School Transport – option 2 of the proposed policy has been approved subject to Judicial Process.
 - ii. Report from Cllr Bull (circulated and read in her absence): The Local Government Boundary Commission has published their draft recommendations for the new West Suffolk Council which they are consulting on until 31 August 2018.
There was discussion at a previous meeting about dog litter bins. The Borough now provide a combined dog and litter bin at £279 each.
B/f to next meeting.
A working party, which I Chair, set up to look at Civic leadership in the new WSC next year. The new council will automatically be a District Council. Consultation available shortly on whether they should apply for Borough status and should have a Chairman or a Mayor.

Mill House development – I can find no recent planning applications.

Item 6 on your agenda relates to 11th November commemoration, I would be happy to help with funding.

There are a number of projects which came in through your suggestion box and I may be able to help with some of the smaller items from my Locality Budget. Match funding may be available for larger projects like extending the Pavilion.

- iii. Members of the Public: Two parishioners complained about the height of 4 trees planted on Willow Green, in front of the bungalows, about 10/15 years ago. They feel they are too high, one property has had to have its TV ariel moved, they both felt the trees were shading the solar panel on the roofs and the light into their rooms. The land belongs to Havebury who have been contacted by the parishioners, The parishioners also complained that since Havebury changed contractors the grass cutting program on Willow Green has been unsatisfactory. Clerk to write to Havebury asking for the 4 trees to be cut down to 6ft high, and to address the issue of grass cutting on the green.

Concerns were also raised about the piece of barren land next to the bungalows which is so overgrown, and the vegetation so high, it is causing visibility issues when exiting the car park belonging to the bungalows. Clerk to check who owns the land.

Concerns were also raised about the hedge around Fairholme causing lack of visibility. This complaint has been ongoing for several years.

A query was raised as to whether the ditch adjacent to the bungalows, which is blocked, could have a knock-on effect on the flooding at Reeves Hall. JS to view site.

6. Finance: The following accounts for payment were agreed: - Mr P Penn, Tree Warden, Tree Planting Project £54.00; Clerk's expenses (including £40.00 registration ICO) £112.50; Suffolk Accident and Rescue Service Donation £50.00 (S137 Local Gov Act 1972); Hepworth and District WI Donation £50.00 (S137 Local Gov Act 1972); Hepworth Parochial Church Council Donation £200.00 (S137 Local Gov Act 1972); Request for donation of £200.00 for Hepworth Herald was agreed. It was felt that only village organisations and events should be included in the Herald free of charge. It was agreed to pay £43.20 to print double sided A4 colour leaflet explaining use of defibrillator, to be included as loose leaflet in next Hepworth Herald issue.

Bank reconciliation at 5th July 2018 was agreed and approved
The Internal Audit Report recommendations were discussed.

Total Rainfall: 20.7mm
Wettest Day: 7.8mm 12th

May 2018

Very dry and a very warm month. Warmest May in my records (going back to 2009) with mean temperature 2.5C above the May average. Completely dry between the 13th and 23rd inclusive. The month was dominated by winds from the NE and East.

June 2018

Weather wise, 2018 is turning in to a year of extremes and contrasts. June was an exceptionally dry and sunny month. Although warm (+1.8C above average), it was not as warm as June 2017, the heat being tempered by persistent N/NE winds off the cool North Sea. 96% of the months total rainfall fell on the first 2 days of the month. No measurable rain has fallen between the 10th June and up to the time of writing (10/07/18), 31 days. The last week of June averaged over 11 hours of sun daily.

On Days like These

(On days like these, when skies are blue and fields are green)

On 23th/24th June with some trepidation, the members of Hepworth2Enjoy launched the inaugural Hepworth Scarecrow Festival. This was not an “Italian Job” but a quintessential English occasion. This bit of fun caught the imagination of Hepworthians and as with the flawless, silky rendition of Matt Monroe, it all came together beautifully.

The sun shone and all through the village, temporary residents emerged in front gardens, in varying interpretations of what a scarecrow could be. From mermaids to pirates and crocodiles the spectrum was comprehensive. In one garden a whole family of scarecrows took up residence, while in the Churchyard, Eric was contemplating the meaning of life (a least that was my take on the situation). It was in some ways a pity that a winner had to be found but David and Carole after great difficulty plumped for “Bert on a bike” and he was indeed scary.

Now the traditions of Hepworth demand that an occasion like this cannot satisfactorily take place without a bun-fight, in fact it was a cream and strawberry tea served to perfection. During this Carole gave a very polished and entertaining resumé of all the contestants before presenting the Worzel Gumidge Cup to Ernie Potter. In truth we were all winners that day---every entrant was a “gem”, a big Well done to everybody, especially to those ladies of the village who made so much effort baking scones etc. (some of whom couldn't actually attend on the day).

Then there was also the little matter of a 6-1 England win!
Oh yes. On days like these

Hepworth Art – June & July 2018

Full of variety, we have all enjoyed our 'Painting Mondays' during this wonderful summer weather. Earlier on we were delighted to welcome Catherine Bremner who is a very talented local artist. Catherine provided a tutorial on painting clouds and foregrounds. Very much inspired, we have invited her back! Our sessions have also included Birds of the Shoreline, Drawing and Painting People (made easy!) and Colours of India. On the last Monday in June, at last we made it outside! Most of our previous outside arrangements have resulted in rain stopping play! We had an absolutely glorious day at Ling's Meadow matched by Kath and Neel's warm and sunny welcome. Some of the resulting artwork will be on display at our next exhibition in October.

At the Exhibition you will almost certainly see a whole 'flock' of Sunflowers as well. Jan Shadbolt, one of Hepworth Art Club members, tutored a Still Life session of Sunflowers using soft pastels. To many of us, this was a new medium and Jan coached and cajoled and the results surprised us all. If you would like to preview our Sunflowers, visit Hepworth Art facebook page where you will see some of our artwork.

Our Art Exhibition (6/7 th October) is a special time for us when we gain enormous pleasure sharing with you the artwork we have produced throughout the year. There will be over 100 paintings and, to go with them, some delicious refreshments.. Again, we shall have the usual 'Squares' Draw where you could win an original painting for just £1! The popular Children's Creativity Corner/space will again feature this year plus a little 'arty' quiz that requires observation skills only!

October 7 th is nationally designated as 'Silver Sunday' – a special day to celebrate our super silver senior citizens. We would be delighted if our Hepworth Silver generation could come along and share with us an hour or two; enjoy some refreshments and take time to talk to friends, neighbours and members of the art club. Please let me know if you would like to come but need transport. We will be happy to collect you and take you home again.

THE REAL HOUSEWIVES OF HEPWORTH VILLAGE

On my one visit to such an event, I donned jeans, brightly coloured wellies (my only concession to being a “gal”) and oversized coat, all of which were approved by Him Outdoors before I got out of the farm gate. I now possess a pair of rigger boots, bought for my birthday! Well I suppose it beats a new iron doesn't it ladies? I can remember that Christmas when my father gave my mother an iron, I remember it very well, and not with a great deal of fondness I must say.

Anyway back to the sale, I am standing up to my ankles in mud, listening to yet another conversation about so and so's new 30 foot header, no seriously, this is not innuendo. This is for real. In this male world, women, with the exception of the Auctioneer's Clerk are a rare thing, as are my brightly coloured wellies, which seem to be causing quite a stir; do I really need a license for them?

The highlight of my morning is a coffee and burger from the van, swiftly followed by further purchases for friends, so I am permanently in the queue. This is not something I mind too much, as, at least standing near the van with all that steam and cooking, it's much warmer! The food is good, the result being that I am sent back time and time again, and the lady serving even gives me free coffee for being such a big spender. Perhaps she takes pity on me, or can empathise; I'm not quite sure which.

The catering at these events is surprisingly and consistently good, then I realise that these men produce the food we eat so it had better be.

“Onehundred per cent beef” - who said the farmer doesn't have a discerning palette? I am reminded of a wine tasting with good vintage wine, good grape that one; “hung for 30 days that beef” or “Came from Aberdeen Angus that did” or even “Bread from the local bakery” - None of this supermarket stuff here, next thing I'll know where the lettuce came from!

I cast my eye around the sale, and it's the colours that get me, well one colour actually and that's ORANGE, no we're not in Holland, we're in a field in Suffolk. Orange is the tinge of the machinery coated in rust, orange is the colour (almost) of the red oxide that most lots display, orange is the colour of the twine, baler twine actually, that seems to be tied to most things, and probably holding it all together. Maybe we could use it to hold this country of ours together, you know, show a bit of unity, and who knows we might persuade Tesco's to buy “Buy British”, or is that too big a hill to climb?

(Sorry, but just had to have a sideways swipe).
