Village Sign Design Competition

Sadly, despite a recent renovation, our village sign is beyond repair. However, this provides a wonderful opportunity for all you budding artists and designers out there to design a new sign for Hepworth. The sign must represent Hepworth in some way.

Please draw your design in colour on an A4 sheet of paper and mount it on card. Please accompany your design with a small explanation as to what you would like your sign to be made of and the reasons behind your design.

The closing date for all entries is 1st May 2019. Entries to be given to Louise Robinson, Bakery Cottage, Church Lane.

The designs will be displayed at the Parish Council AGM at the recreation Hall on Thursday, 9th May 2019 where you, the villagers, can vote for your favourite design.

The winning design will be made and the winner will have the honour of unveiling their design at a future date.

Hepworth Art News

Although cold outside, every Monday there has been a warm and productive energy buzzing in the Pavilion. Many of the members have produced some 'masterpieces'. Our subject matter has ranged from Reflection to Life Drawing. I am still not too sure whether the group was disappointed that the model was clothed! The first quarter of our painting year has drawn to a close and we are looking forward to a warm and sunny spring to inspire us. On April 1st the subject is 'All in the April Evening' – inspired by Clare who leads Hepworth Angels. The singers valiantly practiced and practiced to get it right....almost! For the art club then, it is ..'the sheep with their little lambs'.

Abstract painting, chicken and eggs and even creating a poster for your favourite place or your village. We are also hoping to have a guest artist provide a Pastel Workshop in May. Also in May, Bluebell woods – pure inspiration!

Caroline and her husband are arranging another coach trip to London to see the Van Gogh Exhibition at The Tate - On 13th June, The luxury coach (with loo) will be door to door from Hepworth. There are some seats available and if you are interested, please contact me – details below.

Annual Exhibition is being planned! Please reserve in your diary the dates for our Annual Exhibition – Saturday 5th and Sunday 6th October. See how many sheep and little lambs you can spot!

Village Pancake Race

Despite grey skies and a stormy morning, at 4pm on Sunday 10th March an intrepid band of Hepworth villagers gathered on the playing field – eager and dressed for arctic conditions. Fortunately the worst of the conditions cleared in time for the Great Hepworth Pancake races! After some flipping practice and trial runs, the races got underway. The winners were:

Ron (Mens category); Rowan (Boys); Neeve (Girls); Claire (Ladies).

Having expended so much energy, everyone was ready for the stacks of pancakes and tea waiting in the Pavilion with the added bonus of a delicious variety of fillings, provided by H2E friends.

Thank you everyone who come to the Lent Lunch on the 14th. I'm pleased to say that we raised £134.50.

Letter from Reverend Bladen April 2019

Dear Friends and Neighbours,

By the time the magazine arrives on your doormats we will be almost half way through Lent. Lent is a strange kind of time ...and in many ways it seems to be going out of fashion. There was a time when everyone would be discussing what they would be giving up for Lent... anything from chocolate to wine, caffeine, sugar...etc; I wonder if perhaps it's because it's not understood.

Historically Lent was a solemn time when Christians fasted and gave up things they enjoyed in order to help them concentrate and prepare to remember Holy Week... to remember the death of Jesus on the Cross and then to prepare to celebrate Jesus resurrection on Easter Sunday. And today many Christians still use this season of Lent as a time of reflection and preparation. In this age of mindfulness Lent gives us a perfect opportunity to pause to take time to reflect on life and how we're journeying through it. Jesus said that He came that we might have abundant life... full and overflowing (John 10:10). Lives lived like that come out of knowing who we are and who we're designed to be... There's also a wonderful peace and quiet joy that comes out of knowing that we are truly loved and loved just as we are... that I believe is what Jesus did for us that first Easter. By dying on the cross so that all our sins might be forgiven He opened up for us a new way of being... a new way of living and the possibility of a new way of life.

During what is left of this Lent season you might like to take time to pause and reflect on the love that God has for each one of us, and the promises that God makes to us. You might like to read and think through the bible passages in Mark's gospel chapters 14,15 and 16 and see all that Jesus did to declare that love to us. And then perhaps you might like to join us at one of our Easter Sunday services as we celebrate Jesus' victory and His rising from the dead and all that that new life could mean to us.

The details of all the services across Holy Week and Easter Sunday are in the magazine... it would be great to see you at one of them. And if you'd like to chat about what new life as a Christian might look like please do get in touch with me, I'd love to have a chat with you.

Have a thoughtful Lent and a Very Happy Easter.

God Bless

Cathy (The Rector)

100 YEARS OF REMEMBRANCE

Hepworth Remembers

Harry Vincent Filby

Harry, known more widely as Vincent (his father was also Harry) was born in 1893 in Hepworth. By 1911, the family was living at Dunhill Lane, and Harry was an apprentice wheelwright. He married Agnes Emma Claydon in 1915, just before being posted in May 1916. He was transferred to the 15th Battalion, stationed in Calais in July 1918, and died 3 weeks later from gunshot wounds, aged 25. He is buried in Aire, St Omer in Calais.

He is remembered on the Hepworth Memorial and the Bardwell Memorial, and on his parents gravestone in Hepworth Churchyard. The Filby family are recorded in Hepworth as far back as 1768, when Harry's Great, great, great grandparents were married in St Peter's. Agnes's brother (George Egbert Claydon) died 2 months after Harry, and she moved away from Hepworth.

Alfred George Fisk

Alfred was born in Gislingham in 1892. He was one of 8, including his brother Ernest (below). The family moved to Rectory Road in Finningham the following year. In 1911, the family is living in Hepworth, near Hepworth Hall, and all the men are labourers on a farm. Alfred was killed in action on 28th April 1917 in France, aged 25. His name is on the memorial at Arras, along with more than 34,000 others.

His older brother, David, married and had a daughter born in Hepworth in 1922. His sister Mabel's husband served, survived and had a family, whilst living in Ixworth. His mother died in 1938. His father, Amos Fisk was still living on North Common in 1939, with his son (Alfred's and Ernest's brother) Arthur, who in turn died in Hepworth in 1972.

Ernest James Fisk

The younger brother of Alfred (above), Ernest, recorded as 'James', was born in 1896 in Finningham. He enlisted in Bury St Edmunds, and there seems to be a little confusion in the records, recording him as both EJ and JE Fisk. In addition, the Suffolk Regiment shows 3 different numbers for him - 5819667, 10077 and 23688. He died at Flanders, The Somme, France on 29th August 1916, aged just 20. His name is on the Theipval Memorial along with over 72,000 other casualties.

THE REAL HOUSEWIVES OF HEPWORTH VILLAGE

(A tongue in cheek, long-suffering farmer's wife view of life on the farm. We left our housewife contemplating "The Show" and the preparations required for attending it)

Turning to footwear, not wearing heels is not an option; after all, looking the part is what it's all about, and I don't get to dress up very often. Well, I could, but it wouldn't last long in the pigs, and the kind of workout I give my work clothes is a tough one! Anyway, I digress. I have learnt from painful past experience to carry a pair of flatties in my bag, so when the glamorous look loses over the pain in my feet, I slip them on and then ponder as to why my calves have not lowered themselves with the shoes. The first year I did "The Show" I endured high heels all day until I could stand it no longer, and abandoned heels completely, walking barefoot. This proved to be a bad move at the end of a day at a showground strewn with rubbish etc.

Moving on to the day, departure time, or ETD, as Him Outdoors calls it (I'm not sure if "Show Time" has a military operational name) but it is treated as though it is. The truck gets it's yearly clean and muck-out the day before, and clothes are ironed and laid out in anticipation of the next day. Him Outdoors attends to his toilette painstakingly, and for a man not usually given to being overly concerned about his appearance, other than worrying if he has a clean pair of overalls, the transformation is all encompassing.

In the bunk house, reveille is at five; I struggle out of bed to the kettle, fortify myself with tea and psyche myself up to shower, dress, apply make-up and so on and so forth. Normally dressing takes two minutes: I just throw on my trackies and sweat shirt, rake a brush through my hair, clip it up and apply moisturiser, as the pigs don't seem to be fashion conscious. This extraordinary task of getting "dolled-up" is grudgingly executed with copious amounts of tea. I am under orders not to drink too much tea as he won't stop on the way for a toilet break. That's what you think Ha! Ham and cheese rolls and a flask of coffee are made, and I am, as ever, aware of his view that this is breakfast, which is to be eaten on arrival at the Show. Friends arrive and we set off, exactly two hours later. Settling ourselves for the journey, we break out the goodies within ten minutes of leaving. Consumption of food en route is not normally an appetising thought at any other time of the year due to the straw, dust, discarded jackets, boots, dochy bags, newspapers and anything else we can't normally find, which has accumulated in the truck. However, the clean surroundings and good company make this the start of a good day out.

Neighbourhood Watch Scheme your village needs you!

The Parish Council have been made increasingly aware of antisocial incidents occurring in the village over recent months. A few examples are as follows:-

A man was approached by two masked men while he was outside of the property. They grabbed him, threatened him and forced him inside, where they then conducted a search and stole keys, an amount of cash and a mobile phone. The victim was punched several times to the head and sustained a broken wrist.

People have been caught on CCTV camera wandering around private properties, staring in the windows and even urinating in the garden. Walking dogs through private property, allowing the dog to poo and not picking it up. People walking through private property during a family barbecue. Driving vehicles on private property nearly injuring the resident. Attempted theft of a horse lorry. Honesty boxes being raided, eggs being stolen, damage to produce stands. Damage to car and contents stolen.

Cyclists appear to be carrying out un-official speed trails on their road bikes around our lanes and horse riders are experiencing problems. Horse riders are also regularly subjected to abuse, often stating they should not be on the roads.

These are just the incidents that have come to the attention of the PC, I am sure there are many more we are not aware of. If you are aware of other incidents please contact either Louise or the Clerk as we would like to compile a record of events.

These incidents highlight the need for a Neighbourhood Watch (NW) Scheme in Hepworth. Cllr Louise Robinson is happy to form a NW group, and once volunteers are identified the aims and objectives of the scheme can be set out.

It should be stressed that joining the scheme would mean only a minimal commitment of time and energy for a very big improvement in our local environment!!!

If you would like to joining the NW scheme, or would just like a little more information about what would be involved, please contact Louise on 01359 251066 or the Clerk on 01359 250037

January 2019: A cold but very dry month. The driest January at this station since records began in 2010. Barometer exceptionally 'high' on the 3rd. No severe cold but some snowfall, (1cm on the ground, 30th,31st). Wind gust of 53 mph on the 27th, associated with low pressure moving east over the North Sea.

February 2019: A dry and very mild month. Little snow and cold and with an absence of easterly winds. Remarkable spell of very sunny and exceptionally mild weather between 21st and 27th, where max. temperatures were at or exceeded 15C and to 18.6C on the 27th. Sunshine averaged 8 to almost 10 hours daily. Unprecedented in its persistence of sun and daytime warmth for a winter month at this station.

DOG FOULING

The Parish Council have once again received complaints about dog fouling in the village, in particular in Dunhill Lane (By-way) from the bungalow on the corner up towards the Wood Lane footpath.

No Fouling

Please be reminded that the penalty for not clearing up dog fouling can be up to £1,000 if taken to court, but there is also provision for a fixed penalty scheme with a fine of £50 in England.

Dog Bins are provided in the village along The Street, at the back of Church Close and outside the Pavilion - you also have the option to take it home!

RICKINGHALL & DISTRICT COMMUNITY TRANSPORT

A huge 'thank you' to the numerous organisations which so generously donate to our community bus thus ensuring its future operation. Also, to the special people who fundraise and donate so generously.

A special 'thank you' to the parish councils of Redgrave, Botesdale, Rickinghall, Wattisfield, Hepworth and Stanton which ring-fence funds on an annual basis to ensure a replacement vehicle when necessary.

From all the people who use and need the bus, again, thank you.
